SHERRY & OTHER FAMOUS FORTIFIEDS

Fortified wine and whisky have had a very long relationship, casks that previously held Sherry, Port and other styles of wine have been used to mature whisky in Ireland, Scotland, and even locally, here in Australia.

Here, at Whisky and Alement, we try and support the Sherry industry as much as we can, and we also enjoy pairing this style of wine with a whisky to complement the wine. Please enjoy a Sherry and Whisky pairing.

NIHONSHU - SAKÉ

By Yulli's Brews

Nihonshu - or Saké as it is known outside of Japan - has grown to immense popularity around the globe. So much so, that producers of this rice-based beverage have spread worldwide, and as evidenced by these incredible brews, you'll even find Nihonshu being made in Sydney!

Effectively a traditional rice beer, Nihonshu (Saké) is famed for its elegance, depth, and texture. The rice, after polishing, is steamed and inoculated with Koji mold. A mold which is absolutely crucial to the production of Nihonshu. This is then kept at a precise temperature and humidity, allowing the Koji to break down starches from the rice into more fermentable sugars, and the yeast to begin converting those sugars to alcohol.

YULLI'S BREWS, NAMA-SAKE JUNMAI 16% 60ml 16

This is a classic clean style of nihonshu, Clear, bright and unadulterated. Think melon, white peach and jasmine, a beautiful crisp acidity. Designed to be consumed cold and fast.

- Add Cragganmore 12yr +11

YULLI'S BREWS, NIGORIZAKE 16% 60ml 16

This ancient style of nihonshu is entirely unfiltered, and is bursting with flavour. Naturally carbonated, dry and quite tart.

- Add AnCnoc "Peatheart" Heavily Peated Batch 1 + 19.5

*We serve all of our Nihonshu cold and in a wine glass for you to properly enjoy this gorgeous un-pasteurised, un-filtered brew.

BRANDY

As one of the worlds oldest spirits, Brandy is such a diverse, ever expanding category. From the aromatic and terroir driven Cognacs, the robust, individual winery styles of Armagnac, to the bold styles of the new world, this is a category we at Whisky & Alement, simply can't get enough of.
